DEDICATION

For the past five years Mary Ann Rees has contributed greatly to this school. She has served as yearbook adviser from 1980-1984. With her gift of laughter, her love of language, and her curiosity about the world, Mary Ann has made the school a brighter, happier place. For her dedication to the yearbook, her creative teaching methods, and her marvelous sense of humor, the 1984-85 yearbook staff dedicates this yearbook to Mary Ann Rees.

South Rips North In Prep Hockey

The Brown turned the fifth annual Utah High School All-Star hockey game into his personal showcase Saturday evening in the Salt Palace

It's been seventeen years or maybe more
 Many times I've opened a door
 Sometimes I've lost and had the blues
 Other times just searching for clues
 Always trying to find a high
 Sometimes giving a simple cry
 Give me a chance and you will see
 I'm just trying to be set free
 Life's too short don't say die
 if you can always try
 The sun will shine
 And all will be fine
 Life goes on day by day
 Close some doors and lay in hay
 Problems are with us all
 So don't give up and take a fall

Timothy Wintrobe Brown

PORNOGRAPHY

A hand in my mouth
 A life spills into the flowers
 We all look so perfect
 As we fall down
 In an electric glare
 The old man cracks with age
 She found his last picture
 In the ashes of the fire
 An image of the Queen
 Fingers round the sweating neck
 Over yellow sands inside my head
 In books
 And films
 And in life
 And in Heaven
 The sound of Slaughter
 As your body turns
 But it's too late

One more day like today and I'll kill you
 A desire for flesh and real blood
 And I'll watch you drown in the shower
 Pushing me through your own eyes

Just want this sickness
 And a cure...

- The Cure

PROGRESS?

Progress? That's just Regression

Technology? That's nothing new

Advance! You scream insanely

Advance? From this to what

And everytime you smile I smell Decay, Killer!

Your empty eyes stare, cold and grey,
 Look at that face!

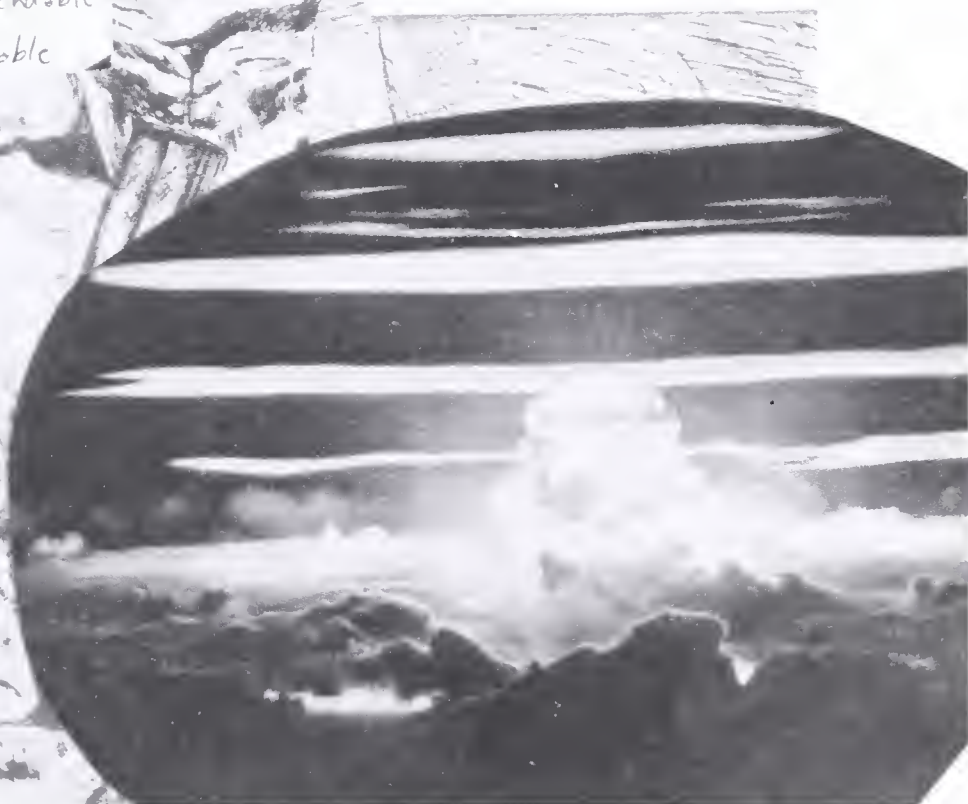

Machinery (Master?), We're all expendable

It's just so obvious, it's more dependable

This progress will mean a number
 Branded to your skin

They lead you to your slaughter
 Like they lead a horse to water
 They can't force you to drink
 But you do!

- Amr

To go into solitude, a man needs to retire as much from his chamber as from society. I am not solitary whilst I read and write, though nobody is with me. But if a man would be alone let him look at the stars . . .

Ralph Waldo Emerson

OREGONIANS DONT TAN,

"Do not stand on this mountain and weep,
I am not here, I do not sleep.
I am the thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on pure white snow.
I am the sunlight on groomed terrain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush,
of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shimmers in the night.
Do not stand on this mountain and weep,
I am not here, I do not sleep."

Some always want the best in life,
 And they labor long to gain it.
 Their days are full of stress and strife
 And they'll break their backs to attain it.

Curiosity may have killed the cat; more likely the cat was just unlucky, or else curious to see what death was like, having no cause to go on licking paws, or fathering litter on litter of kittens, predictably.

Face it. Curiosity will not cause us to die — only lack of it will. Never to want to see the other side of the hill or that improbable country where living is an idyll (although a probable hell) would kill us all. Only the curious have, if they live, a tale worth telling at all.

He who laughs last had to have it explained.

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

—Robert Frost

When I heard the learn'd astronomer,
When the proofs, the figures, were ranged in columns before me,
When I was shown the charts and diagrams, to add, divide, and measure them,
When I sitting heard the astronomer where he lectured with much applause in the lecture-room,
How soon unaccountable I became tired and sick,
Till rising and gliding out I wandered off by myself,
In the mystical moist night-air, and from time to time,
Looked up in perfect silence at the stars.

Definitions of "A FRIEND"

The first person who comes in when the whole world has gone out.

A bank of credit on which we can draw supplies of confidence, counsel, sympathy, help and love.

A jewel whose lustre the strong acids of poverty and misfortune cannot dim.

One who multiplies joys, divides grief, and whose honesty is inviolable

Confidence is not the lack of fear, it is the ability to act regardless of fear

RIBBON CUTTING

On September 5, on the front lawn of Rowland Hall St. Marks new South Campus, a thirty-minute ribbon-cutting ceremony was held.

Featured speakers were Board of Trustees Chairman Peter Billings, Thomas Jackson, Gregory Zeigler, Bishop Otis Charles, Lorna Matheson from the Board of Education, and Christopher Sumner from the Board of Trustees.

One green and one white ribbon were draped across the front of the school's main doors and were cut with a large pair of scissors.

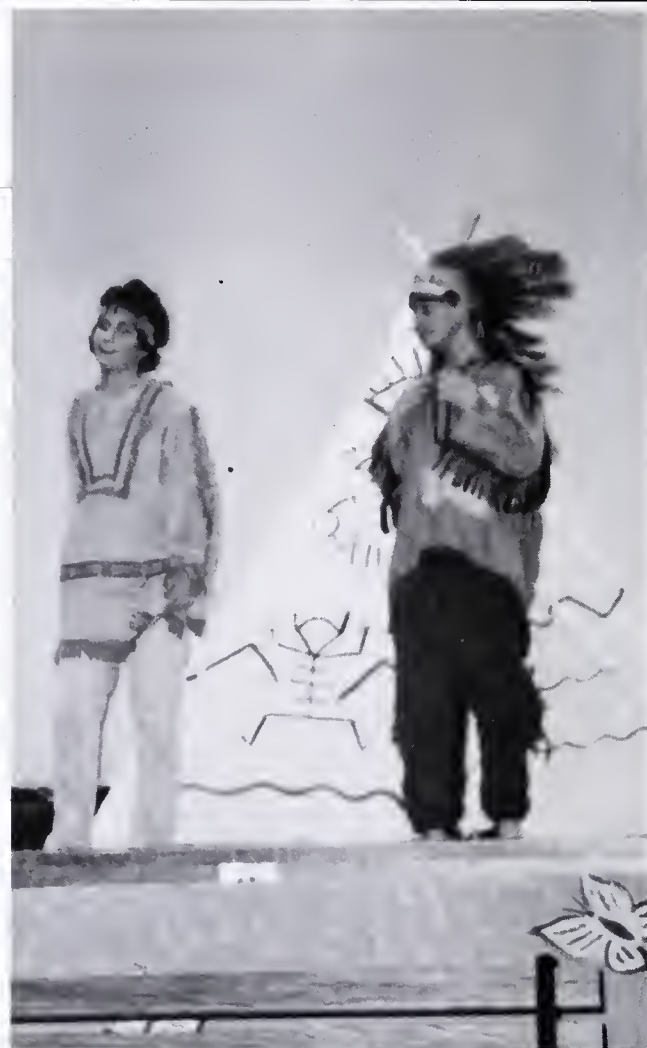

7TH AND 8TH GRADE PICNIC

On September 22, the 7 and 8 graders had a picnic on the back - field of the South Campus. Fortunately, the weather was clear so the students and the faculty enjoyed games of baseball and soccer. The parents, faculty, and sponsors were invited. While the students ran around, the faculty attempted to create hamburgers and hot dogs. It was a great way to get the Middle School acquainted for the upcoming year.

MIDDLE SCHOOL PLAY

On December 6, 1984, Rowland Hall-St. Marks School held the first middle school play, titled "Little Mary Sunshine", which continued through December 7.

DANCES

WESTERN NIGHT

Community Lunch is a new program at Rowland Hall. Every Friday the students and faculty have a formal lunch together. The purpose of community lunch is for the students and faculty to socialize with new people and to hear guest speakers. Community lunch emphasizes the importance of table manners.

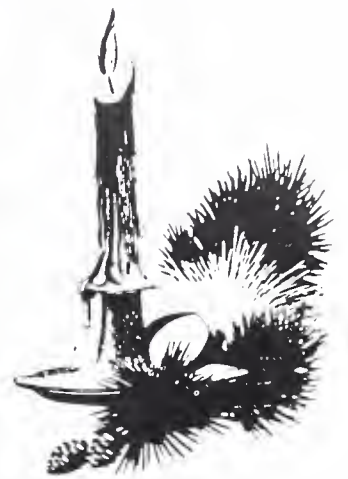

CANDLE & CAROL

On the evening of Tuesday December 18 the Rowland Hall-St. Mark's upper school convened at St. Mark's Cathedral in celebration of Candle & Carol. Karyn Easton played the harp while students, Mr. Jackson and religious leaders read Christmas messages.

ROTOWN

This year RHSM was gifted with presence of Rowtown, a group of musically adept students who entertained such causes as community lunch, student lounge, and dances. They perform styles ranging from ska to blues and anything in between. The members are as follows: Pat Lovell on saxophone; Steve Mansfield and Russ Wahlen on the trumpet; Alex Kim and Jonathon on keyboards; Adam Marty on bass guitar; and Jon Clark on drums.

DEFINE "CREATIVE"

Webster defines it as "having the quality of something produced through imaginative skill, not imitated"

Now look at your advertising. Does it have a distinctive quality that emphasizes the individuality of your company, service or product? Or does it simply mimic current advertising trends?

At S. Thompson we believe that every company has its own identity, every product has its own benefits, every service has its own advantages. Our advertising campaigns emphasize these differences through an inimitable combination of imaginative marketing, concise copy and unique graphics. In addition, our creative staff works directly with our clients, so your message says what you want it to say — and says it in a way that produces results for you. S. Thompson is not for the "me, too" advertiser.
